EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

NEW AND THRILLING BOOK.

The Last Ninety Days of The War

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

BY CORNELIA PHILLIPS SPENCER.

Edited by Rev. Dr. Deems.

A Portion of this Book appeared in numbers of The Watchman, and attracted great attention in this country and Europe.

Re-written, enlarged with many most important additions, these chapters appear in a handsome volume. The very last acts of the war occurred in North Carolina; the writer was in the midst of them. Moreover, she has had access to the private papers of LEADING ACTORS, and to other sources of information.

No war-book which has yet appeared equals this book in fidelity to truth and in graphic and picturesque description. Nowhere else can the important information in this volume be obtained.

It ought to be in the hands of every one who desires to know how the war was really carried on.

It is a handsome 12mo. volume of 288 pages, elegantly printed, and well bound, and sent by mail, pre paid, for $1.50.

The usual deduction to the trade.

AGENTS wanted for this work everywhere and liberal commissions allowed. Apply for circular.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, / Editors.
SEATON GALES. \

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 14, 1866.

THE LEGISLATURE meets in this City on Monday next, the 19th. inst.

The Powers of Congress.

The late war fully tested the strength of the Federal government. Whatever doubts had existed before as to its ability to preserve itself amid the most violent sectional war known to history, those doubts have been dissipated.—Yet the developements of the last twelve months, portend a revolution still more trying to its strength and stability, than the one through which it has passed triumphantly. It could stand and pass through successfully a sectional contest, when the strong arrayed itself in its support against the weak, but what is to be the result, when the government is divided against itself? "A house divided against itself," says inspiration, "cannot stand." The elements of discord in the land are precipitating this test upon the country, which must result in the triumph or overthrow of the government.

Hitherto the conservative checks and balances of the government have served to preserve its equilibrium and to hold in restraint the exercise of powers granted to it, if not entirely, yet sufficiently for its preservation, at least in name. Judging by the lights before us, the Executive and Judicial departments of the government have professed to be guided and controlled by the limits fixed by the Constitution to their powers. Yet they are, perhaps, not entirely free from the charge in all respects, of stretching those powers under the plea of necessity. Equally restricted and defined are the powers granted to the legislative branch, yet this department of the government is less contented with its powers than either of the others. While the two former claim to be bound by the Constitution and manifest a readiness to yield to its restraints, the latter bent upon its own aggrandizement and the subjugation of the other two to its purposes, seize upon the verdict of the popular voice, or the "higher law," as a complete justification to demand an increase of its powers, and if its demand is rejected to seize upon them by force and exercise them in spite of the organic law.

The contest upon which the country is verging between the Executive and Legislative branches, is evidently one of power, backed by the popular will in spite of the Constitution, on the part of the Legislative authority, over all the other departments of the government. The claims set up for the Congress since the late elections are plenary and absolute, regardless of the Constitution. The object of the Constitutional amendment was to test the question of an enlargement of powers for the Congress before the people. The result of the elections will be claimed as the success of that principle, and the action of Congress will be directed to test this fully, before the consummation of those measures designed by that body to put them in complete control of the government. The only barrier to their eminent success is the Southern States. Their refusal to adopt the Howard amendment, and thus consolidate the powers of the government greatly increased into the hands of Congress, will force that body either to change its programme, or boldly assume all the powers needed for the consummation of their wishes.

The powers granted by the Constitution to either branch of the government are ample for all its purposes. The real friends of the government, North and South, cannot consent to the enlargement of those powers in either branch, without imminently jeoparding the very existence of the government itself. Admitting therefore, which we do not, the justice and propriety of the propositions of the Constitutional amendment, to weaken the representation of the Southern States, and the infliction of the punishment of disfranchisement on the Southern people, still the Southern people as friends and sworn supporters of the government, cannot without infidelity to their solemn oaths to support the Constitution of the United States, vote to grant to Congress the fearful enlargement of powers proposed to be conferred upon that body, by adopting the Howard amendment.

If the Congress, reckless of the consequences, shall proceed to exercise unauthorized powers to the extent sought and claimed by some, it will remain for the friends of the government, if the Executive and Judicial branches remain true to their trust and determine to resist the encroachments of power on the part of the Congress, to sustain them.

Returned---Satisfied.

We learn that Benjamin Turner, who removed from this county to Illinois, remained there just three weeks, and returned to his old home well satisfied. He says that corn can be purchased there at 15 to 20 cents per bushel; that lands are dear, and even a poor cabin to live in is difficult to obtain at a high price.—Comforts, none.—Statesville American.

This is in accordance with what we have heard from various sources. We have serious impediments to our success and prosperity in North Carolina and the condition of our national affairs is perplexing, yet take it all in all, we know no State more desirable than the old North. If we are industrious, frugal, honest and temporate, we can live as long and as well here, as in any other country. It is as easy to be as upright, honest gentleman here as elsewhere, and it is as near Heaven, when we die, as any other portion of the globe. Let North Carolinians stay at home, mind their own business, labor to improve their condition and leave future events to the control of Divine Providence.

For the Sentinel.

"He Left his Country for his Country's Good."

No, but he did'nt though. He wanted to leave it—and his country was tuning her old fiddle for pæans of joy. But our friends, the Radicals, were not quite ready to let him go.—They could not spare him yet. There was work to do, and he was the very man to do it. Who like him could dignify desertion? Whose bugle could rally, so well as his, the scattered forces of the army deserters and skulkers?—Who could, with greater assurance, bid these worthies and their several circles of sympathisers and protectors, to hold up their pure and patriotic heads? Who could so adroitly and successfully convince them that they are not really the mean and contemptible characters they supposed themselves to be? That they are, in truth, highly concentrated patriots?—The very salt of the land—and the soul of honor? Why should they longer feel mean, and hang down their heads, and cover their honest faces with blushes? Are they not now the elect? To labor among these excellent people—to elevate them in their own estimation—to reinstate them in that social position which they had lost—and to place in their hands all the honorable offices which were once in the gift of North Carolina, before she became unfrocked as a State and reduced to a province? No San Salvador for the X. P. G. until this great work is accomplished. He must wait—and work—and work. Oh! call it not a dirty work! It is such as is assigned him by honorable men—"and Brutus is an honorable man—so are they all, all honorable men."

We can have little patience with that crazy orator in Brooklyn who, the other day, spoke so disrespectfully of our peaceable people—our quiet non-combatants during the war. Why should he, or anybody else speak contemptuously of these meek apostolical people? Was it right to call our gentle friends "dragmatic and pestiferous political palaverers, who, when others were fighting battles to prove their faith, stood off and with folded arms looked on, or to speak more plainly, scurrily skulked out of the danger that tested the grit of manhood and the integrity of profession, only to save their dastardly carcasses to play the role of swaggerers, now in the farce of theoretical secession after the fight is over, the danger past and the cause lost." We object strenuously to this snubbing of our very respectable sneakers during the war. All could not fight. Some had to be mere lookers-on. The wives and children of those who were fighting had to be taken care of. These kind-hearted gentlemen staid at home to take care of them. Many who were in the army also remembered that corn must be made, or the fighting men could not themselves be fed. So they patriotically left the ranks—often between two suns, and returned to their homes, obeying the holy injunction to convert their spears into pruning hooks and ploughshares, and all "for their country's good." These friends of peace have not been always as proud of their achievements in rural pursuits as they ought to have been. They were even ashamed, and could not lift up their heads among their fellows. They were sometimes taunted and jeered by the women, even, as cravens and cowards. This was hard to bear, and their spirits sunk within them. But now we have changed all that. In more senses than one is the "bottom rail on top."

These patriotic gentry, most of whom were valiant champions of secession in the early stage of the war, and so long as it prospered, have been since their defeat courted and caressed, until they really begun to believe themselves tolerably decent people, and that by some alchymy which they cannot well understand, their conscious meanness has been changed to a marvellous merit. They number about ten thousand in North Carolina,—tied together by various strings,—some of them red. These are the precious Union men, who, under the guidance of our ex-P. G. (who is under the guidance of the ratifying power in Washington) are laboring with might and main to keep us out of the Union! Some dull folks find it difficult to see the consistency of this. Let these "stupids" know that it is all in "concatenation accordingly." The shrewd X. P. G. knows who has "always advocated the doctrine of secession." He knows how to reduce it to practice. He knows the present advantage to himself and his worthy compeers of secession "fait accompli," and of that advantage he will avail himself,—or die a-trying. The Union for which our Yankee friends fought is hopelessly broken. The Government is gone, for which they struggled.

The Federal Flag proclaims a lie (so-called.) Why flaunt in gaping faces these thirty-six States? Why spread the falsehood across the streets? Is it not notorious that ten of those stars have no business there? So says Sumner. So says Stevens. So say all the Radicals, and so, to be consistent, must also say their active friend and co-adjutor, who was excused from his foreign mission, and sent back to act as drill-master to the ragged regiments of skulks and deserters. Sir Rhoderick Dhu was a chieftain bold,

"One blast upon his bugle horn
"Could raise a thousand men"

Our valorous Knight has done more but has been a longer time about it. He has tooted away on his Rams-horn for two or three years and has waked up somewhere about ten thousand "Lost Rebels in the wood," wandering about in the Province of North Carolina. His was the proud and glorious task of comforting and cleansing, and white washing, and firing the hearts of these delectable men of peace, against those misguided spirits who fought with considerable bravery indeed, but who disastrously lost the cause.

There is a contest coming—a war of words and sentiments, in which these patriotic peaceable souls, may hope, without any loss of blood, to win many laurels—and also some loaves and a few small fishes. Verily smiling peace hath her victories, as well as grim-visaged war.—Stand up then, ye peaceful heroes! Acquit yourselves like men! Be no longer ashamed to look honest men in the face! Come forth from your old hiding places for your day has come! You are not now miserable hangers-on to the army, scrambling after the spoils of victory won by the headlong valor of blockheads. Ye the magnanimous hangers-back, cautious, shrewd, disciples of peace, to whom is committed the pious task of disposing of the fortunes and lives of the shameless wretches who fought but failed. They are not to be pardoned, but punished. Heroes of America! Your hour is come! Imitate your illustrious leader and drill-master! Hold up your heads and look honest and brave!——if you can! Q.

The vote of Davidson county, Tenn., in the last election for members of the Legislature, officially reported, resulted as follows: For Lellyet, Conservative, 1,242: for Wilson, Radical, 308, leaving a majority Lellyet of 934.

The Washington Republican distinctly charges Secretary Stanton with gross neglect in the matter of the New Orleans riot, and with being responsible for its non-prevention.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I beg to present, through the columns of your journal, to the members of the Senate, of the General Assembly about to assemble, the gentleman whose name heads this article, for the Speakership of that body,—satisfied, as I am, that there is not a member of the body more likely to fill the measure of the requirements of that position.

MR. WILSON is an experienced lawyer and legislator, conversant with parliamentary rules and usages, and of a quick, decisive caste of mind, peculiarly fitting him for the position of presiding officer of a deliberative body. He is, constitutionally, a Conservative, and deservedly popular wherever he is known. The Senate would do well to elect him.

AN EASTERN MAN.

For the Sentinel.

"An ancient Clerk, skilful in precedents, wordy in proceeding, and understanding in the business of the Court, is an excellent finger of the Court, and doth many times point the way to the Judge himself."

Messrs. Editors:—Had our venerable and esteemed fellow citizen, E. B. Freeman, been cotemporary with Lord Bacon, the presumption would arise that he sat for the above portrait of an aged and experienced Clerk. Forty years service has rendered him perfectly au fait in everything connected with clerical duties. Mr. Freeman was principal Engrossing Clerk to the last Legislature, and never was the business of that department conducted with more promptitude and fidelity. To those who are personally acquainted with Mr. Freeman, any commendation from me is unnecessary; but as there are many gentlemen who appear for the first time as legislators, I have thought it not amiss to call their attention to his claims for their suffrage. Mr. Freeman will again be a candidate for principal Engrossing Clerk, and I doubt not the members of the approaching General Assembly will take pleasure in recording their votes for such an eminently worthy public officer.

CIVIS.

From Washington.

Cor. Richmond Examiner.

WASHINGTON, November 7.

As Congress is soon to meet, the members of the dominant party in that body begin to confer upon their course of legislation and declare their views. I learn from very good authority that there is already a conflict of opinion among them as to the course to be pursued in regard to the recusant States. The more advanced Radicals will ansist upon using their present power at once in such a manner as to force upon the South equality of political rights—that is, negro suffrage. The moderate Republicans, who are numerous, but have little power or pluck, will propose that the bill, rejected at late session by the House, providing that, upon the ratification of the proposed additional article to the constitution by every State, such State shall be recognized and represented, shall now be revised and passed.

If it be passed, then Congress is to wait, for a reasonable time, for the State Legislatures to be assembled and act upon the proposition. If the Southern States still refuse to accept the amendment, then a law is to be passed, by a two-thirds vote, of course, providing for the call of a Convention of all the people of each of the Southern recusant States—the members of the convention to be voted for by all male inhabitants of twenty-one years of age, without distinction of color or race—which convention shall revise and establish the Constitution and laws of the State in relation to suffrage. The idea is that the black population shall thus have a voice in framing the fundamental laws of the State. This is the project of the moderate Republicans. The extreme Radicals will resist it, as entirely too favorable to the South, and still leaving it optional with the South whether to extend suffrage to the blacks or not.

If Congress renders the proposed amendment a finality, still the Southern States will refuse it, upon the grounds taken by several of the State Legislatures. The alternative proposition would come to nothing. It is simply impracticable. Were the blacks really represented in the proposed State Convention, it is not certain that the suffrage laws would essentially be altered. The moderates will have to succumb to the measures of these violent and determined Radical leaders.

The Radicals urge that the people of the North are in advance of their leaders upon the suffrage question, and that the elections prove it. Therefore Congress is called upon to establish equal suffrage, by compulsion, in the Southern States. It is not true, however, that the elections turned upon the negro suffrage question. Negro suffrage was so unpopular in most of the States, that it was kept out of view. The contest was simply one for power, in State, city and federal government between the old parties—the Federalists (or by whatever name they assumed for the nonce,) and the Democrats. The Democracy, as an organization, cannot resume power without the aid of the South at any time, but especially so soon, after the civil war.

The first thing the Radicals will do will be to pass in the Senate, by a two-thirds vote, the House bill extending suffrage, without discrimination, to blacks in this District. Equal or universal suffrage, imposed by Congress upon a protesting community, will be first tried here.

The Radical organs state that ten thousand Federal troops have been lately brought to this city, and are encamped in its vicinity. Six regiments are allowed for this department, and they have been brought in the place of those whose terms of service have expired. But it is quite possible, as rumored, that a larger force will be concentrated here, or within striking distance, if some of the Radical projects for a Congressional usurpation should be attempted.

The Radicals, through some of their organizations, are calling for a grand rally of veteran soldiers, at this city, on 1st December, to welcome and sustain Congress.

KAPPA.

The Constitutional Union, published at Washington, noticing the call of the Loyal Leaguers for a rally of soldiers and sailors at the Capital, on the meeting of Congress (given by us yesterday), says this "is nothing more nor less than a Revolution which must be met with decision and firmness. If Forney & Co. are determined to persist in the course they have marked out, it is the bounden duty of the friends of the President to accept the issue thus presented, and prepare themselves for the struggle."

"If the programme presented by Forney & Co. is the ground upon which the Radical Congress intends to plant itself, we say to the friends of the President, let us accept the issue, and at once organize for the struggle. Let our friends in every hamlet and village organize themselves at once, and be ready for the conflict."

Mr. Lincoln justified his first call for troops, in 1861, on the ground that the Capital was in danger. It seems that although the Southern people have laid down their arms (been deprived of them indeed), and are almost as quiet, politically, as the dead of their battle-fields, the Capitol is not yet safe. Will faction and frenzy ever permit it to be safe again?—Rich. Whig.

GENERAL NEWS.

MR. DAVIS.—A dispatch from Fortress Monroe, says that the rooms in Carroll Hall, which Mr. Davis has been occupying ever since he was removed from the casemate in which he was first incarcerated, are being entirely renovated. The iron bars which cover the windows and doors are being removed and light curtain shades used in their stead. A complete suit of rooms are being prepared for his reception in the hall, and every arrangement made that will conduce to his health and comfort while he remains a prisoner.

Major General Sherman embarked on Saturday afternoon on board the United States frigate Susquehanna for Vera Cruz, in Mexico, having been ordered thither to take care of the interests of the United States. He was accompanied by Colonel Audenreid, of his staff, and Mr. Campbell, United States Minister, with Mr. Plumb, the secretary of the Minister, were also on board.

THE YANKEE ELEPHANT.—General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, has addressed a letter to colored clergymen, seeking their co-operation in trying to get rid of some of the surplus freedmen here, who must be sent away or supported by the Government during the winter. General Howard says that already about 15,000 colored people have secured employment elsewhere; that this class of the population yet numbers 22,000, of whom not more than 15,000 can be provided with work, leaving 7,000 who ought to go away. He proposes to send them chiefly to Pennsylvania, New York and New England.

It is said that quite a number of the Governors of the Southern States have addressed letters to the President, asking for his opinion as to what the Southern States ought to do and it is said, that he has the matter under advisement now.

The Washington Chronicle denies the statement of the Intelligencer that there is any purpose of military organization in the call of the Soldiers' and Sailor's Committee for a grand mass meeting of the Loyal Leagues to welcome and encourage and sustain Congress, on its approaching assemblage.

The Virginia Alleghanies are swarming with game. A party from Albermarle, who entered the mountains from Staunton, killed twenty-one deer in five days. One buck weighed two hundred and fifty pounds.

GEN. BEAUREGARD.—This late Confederate officer, in a late letter, remarks: "When I surrendered with the Confederate forces at Greensboro, N. C., I buried the hatchet, not to be unburied again, except in defence of the country and its constitutional government."

In a brief note, dated November 5th., Mr. Seward says: "My opinion is that the delay of "the restoration of the organism of nation is a "great error, fruitful only of danger and that "continually."

GOOD NEWS.—The Lynchburg Republican, of yesterday, learns from competent authority there are at present 50,000 bales of cotton at Memphis awaiting shipment to Norfolk; via the Virginia and East Tennessee, South-Side and Norfolk and Petersburg Railroads.

D. H. Craig has been discharged from the general agency of the New York Associated Press by the unanimous vote of the members. Mr. James W. Simonton has been appointed general agent.

Horace Greely is spoken of as a candidate for the United States Senate from New York, to succeed Ira Harris, whose term is about to expire.

A dispatch from New Orleans, dated November 5; says, it is stated, that the President has ordered Gen. Sheridan not to make any arrests under Gen. Grant's famous order.

The London correspondent of a Chicago paper says that the suppositious Yankee-like Artemus Ward stands in England as the representative of American refinement and knowledge.

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 14, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Keoco Mills Co. offer for rent, 300 acres good cotton land in Johnson Co.

Mrs. Watson has opened a good boarding house at the Hutchin's House for the accommodation of members of the Legislature and others.

E. B. Freeman, Esq., announces himself a candidate for re-election as Engrossing Clerk.

J. A. Edwards, of Greene, offers a good tract of land for sale.

Thos. B. Long, of Chatham, is a candidate for Engrossing Clerk.

A Tournament and party will be held at Louisburg on the 22nd inst.

Mrs. DuPre can accommodate 6 or 8 members of the Legislature with good board.

LECTURE.—Rev. Dr. Deems will deliver a Lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association of this city on Monday night next. Subject: Husbands and Wives.

Rev. Bishop Pierce, of the M. E. Church, South, let it be remembered, preaches in the Methodist Church in this City, on Friday night next. Services to commence at 7 o'clock, P. M. The reputation of the Bishop as a divine and pulpit orator, will draw a large crowd.

GOOD BEEF.—Our butchers are now supplying the city with most excellent beef and it seems to be abundant. Indeed our market was never better.

SUNDAY MAILS.—After the present, we learn there will be no Sunday mails received at this office. This will afford relief to our excellent Postmaster and his clerks.

COTTON.—The Northern markets seriously affect the price of cotton here. Holders are not disposed to sell at present rates. Sales were made to day at 28 cents.

EMIGRATION.—About 500 persons, young and old, black and white, from the counties of Burke, Randolph, Stokes, Davie, &c., passed through this city to-day on their way to the Northwest.

OYSTERS.—Our Virginia neighbors are doing the people of this State and themselves a good service by the large supply of Oysters they are sending to us. We see them advertised for sale in most of our towns. In this city since the reduction of the price, the demand is greater than the supply.

CALDWELL COUNTY.—The official vote for Governor in Caldwell stands thus: For Gov. Worth 308 and for Gen. Dockery 44. We will publish the official list to-morrow.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Nov. 13.—E. T. Thigpen, M. O. Sherrill, E. Frasier, W. C. Ovil, A. W. Spainam, Danl. R. Goodloe, W. J. Hawkins, Col. J. M. Heck, A. S. Williams, R. R. Swepson, J. Lewis, North Carolina; A. M., Texas; R. Smith, Ga.; J. P. Dukehart, Baltimore; Gen. N. Goff, Maj. W. A. Cutter, M. M. Preston, U. S. A.; J. S. Garrett, Goldsboro'; Col. Wheeler, U. S. Mail agent; H. H. Helper, P. A. Frercks, Salisbury; J. W. Wiggins, Wake; J. W. Hinnon, Clay co.; G. W. Swepson, Haw River; W. G. Smith, Miss Smith, Anson.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

MR. SPEAKER COLFAX, in a recent speech at Detroit, Michigan, said:

"Wherever there is a people struggling for liberty and nationality, I am in favor of revolution, and give to them a hearty God speed. In Ireland and Mexico, where they want to copy our institutions and follow in our footsteps, my hearts throbs with sympathy for them."

That is the general patriotic formula, the usual rhetorical platitude! Here is the application: The people of the South made a struggle "for liberty and nationality," and Mr. Colfax was among the foremost and loudest of those who demanded that they should be crushed without mercy. And even in this very speech, affecting to think that they may make another effort for independence and self-government, he says:

"When we go again, with a torch in one hand and a sword in the other, we will compel them to submit, or we will sweep them with the besom of destruction."

It is hard to say whether we must admire most the consistency or humanity of Mr. Speaker Colfax.—Richmond Whig.

The Negro Population.

A gentleman versed in such matters, who has been making some examination into the returns of commissioners and assessors of taxes, for various counties of the State, estimate the loss of negroes to the State of Virginia, since 1860, at two-fifths of the entire number. This, in spite of the fact that no inconsiderable number of negroes who, in former years, had been sold and taken South have returned to their old homes. What has become of this crowd of human beings,—not less than two hundred thousand? Some, not a very large number, have gone North; but the remainder, what has become of them? Do the figures of the Freedmen's Bureau tell; or can the imagination of the philanthrophists suggest? "Oh Liberty, what crimes," &c.—Rich. Whig.

The unexpected arrival of about 800 Californians at Charleston, S. C., created quite a stir, as with great prodigality they scattered their gold and silver among the small dealers.

Maria Theresa strictly forbade Freemasonry in Austria, 1704, because the Grand Master refused to communicate to her the secrets of the Order.

STATE NEWS.

The Right Rev. Bishop Atkinson, of North Carolina, was in Edinburg on the 15th of October, and preached in St. John's Church to "a large and attentive audience," as we learn from the Churchman. He was expected to assist in the solemnities of laying the foundation stone of a new church, and is spoken of in terms of great respect by his trans-Atlantic brethren. He was to sail for this country on the 3d. inst.; and we wish the reverend prelate a safe return to his own flock.

FIRST SHIPMENT OF NEW CORN.—Messrs. Havans & Latham, corner of South Front and Craven streets, made the first shipment of new corn of the season from this port, and probably from the State, day before yesterday. We made considerable ado about the first bale of new cotton. Here's your first new corn. Who's ahead?—Newbern Commercial.

HOME MANUFACTURES.—We have been shown a spirit barrel manufactured by Messrs. S. B. Jennings & Co., of Columbus County, which the best judges pronounce to be equal, if not superior, to the very best that are brought from the North.—Wil. Dispatch.

RECONSTRUCTION.—The A. & N. C. Railroad bridge over the Trent is rapidly being reconstructed under the supervision of J. J. Robinson Esq.—Newbern Jour. Com.

ELECTION IN THE 50TH DISTRICT.—We were in error in chronicling the election of Gen. R. M. Henry in the 50th Senatorial District. Later dates show that Col. James Robt. Love was the successful candidate, by 94 majority.—Asheville News.

BOLD ROBBERY.—On Sunday night last the store of Messrs. Hammond & McLaughlin was entered by thieves and over $100 worth of goods abstracted.—Charlotte Guardian.

CROPS COMING IN.—Large quantities of cotton, corn and naval stores continue to flow into Newbern. One shipment of 400 bales will reach here by the freight train on the Atlantic road today, besides numerous smaller shipments not announced in advance.—Newbern Commercial.

COTTON CROP.—It is estimated that the present cotton crop grown in Greensville, Sussex, Southampton and Brunswick counties, Va., will amount to 10,000. Halifax, Warren, Franklin, Granville, Northampton, Edgecombe and Wilson counties, North Carolina, will produce 30,000.—Norfolk Virginian.

The "Lumber Business" in this city is being pushed vigorously at present. The quantity shipped is regulated merely by the ability of shippers to get vessels.—Newbern Commercial.

RESIGNED.—Wm. B. Wadsworth, Esq., has resigned his position as General Agent of the A. & N. C. R. R. Co.—Newbern Com.

Mathias Boger, Esq., Postmaster at this place, died at his residence in Statesville, on Wednesday night last. Mr. Boger lost his wife only a few months ago. He was a good citizen and much esteemed in the community.—Statesville American.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Scott and Miss Weatherly of Greensboro, sisters of Mrs. W. P. Caldwell of this place, who arrived on the train Friday, while coming to town from the Depot in a buggy, the horse taking fright soon after starting, were dashed down a steep embankment into a gully and very seriously injured.—Statesville American.

DUTCH AUCTIONS TAXABLE.—According to the Washington Chronicle, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, on Friday last, received a telegram from North Carolina asking information as to whether sales at "Dutch auction" are taxable. This inquiry occasioned some astonishment, as no person connected with the bureau was aware that any material difference existed between "Dutch" auctions and those of any other character. A telegram was dispatched to North Carolina inquiring the difference, if any. In due time an answer was received, in which the person quoted the definition in Webster's Dictionary. "Dutch auction—the public offer of property at a price beyond its value, then gradually lowering its price till some one accepts it as purchaser." Commissioner Rollins decided that under the provisions of the internal revenue law sales by such auctions are clearly liable to tax.—Newbern Commercial.

At last accounts, the Methodist Centenary subscription had reached the immense amount of $2,054,976.

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
110 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue).

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains from of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
